A.L.I. offers 2 TESL/TEFL training courses

These courses are interactive and task-based. Participants take part actively in all class discussions, activities, and presentations. The instructor(s) will introduce the participants to a variety of activities, teaching materials, and share valuable practical experience from lesson planning to classroom management strategies. Candidates will emerge from the courses with a broadened perspective on communicative language teaching and the ESL industry.

Option 1 • 8-week course

The 150-hour TESL/TEFL Certificate is designed for native speakers or candidates with native-like fluency in English who are looking for a comprehensive course in communicative language teaching. This teacher training program is recognized by TESL Canada and includes a practice teaching component.

Option 2 • 4-week course

The 70-hour TESL Passport™ II is designed mainly for candidates planning to teach abroad. This is an introductory course to teaching skills development and communicative grammar. We also recommend this course for non-native speakers interested in teaching English as a foreign language.
